SOCIETY

A cablegram has been received an nouncing the safe arrival in France of Lieutenant J. W. Sharp, Jr. Mrs. Sharp, formerly M:88 Laura Nelson, of this city, accompanied Lieutenant Sharp to New York and is now visiting her sis-ter, Mrs. Duncan Smith, and Mr. Smith before returning to her house on West

Grace Street.
Lieutenant and Mrs. Sharp were married early in the season and their wed-ding was a most interesting event, as the latter was a debutante this year.

Interesting Lecture.

Next Friday. May 31, at 5 o'clock, in the home of Mrs. T. Archibald Cary, 1004 West Franklin Street, a rare opportunity will be given the people of Richmond to hear of a French woman's experience back of the front themselve. experience back of the front through a drawing-room talk by Madame Charles Bieler, the gifted daughter of Rev. Merle d'Aubigne, the distinguished historian of the Reformation. She is historian of the Reformation. She is also a sister of Rev. Charles Merle d'Aubigne and Mademoiselle Julie d'Aubigne, of Paris, whose visits to Richmond are remembered with pleas-ure. Madame Bieler is giving her time at her own expects in at her own expense to arousing her time at her own expense to arousing interest in the war relief needs of France. She officially represents the follow-ing war relief activities: "Le Comite Frotestant d'Entraide" (housing, feed-ing and clethur aide" (housing, feeding and clothing refugees, rebuilding and restocking farms and cottages); "L'Ami du Soldat" (3,000 soldiers from the invaded districts corresponded with. the invaded districts correspond and provided with literature and comforts); "The French Pastoral God-mother Union" (helping the families of mother Union" (helping the families of French ministers runied by the war);
"The Beigian Protestant Orphanage"
(between fifty and sixty orphans fed and educated in a suburb of Brussels).
All contributions given to Madame Bieler are sent by her to these organizations in France. The lecture is for the tions in France. The lecture is for the benefit of this work. The public is invited to attend, and both men and women will find the lecture unusually interesting.

So much pleasure was expressed by the guests that another garden party will be given this afternoon from 5 to 8 o'clock, and the plays and folk dances will be repeated, and in addition the colored quartet, which gave so much pleasure at the Y. W. C. A. "sings," will again be heard. Miss Eleanor Fry, a promising pupil of Miss Ella Binford, will entertain the guests this afternoon with her interpretive dancing, and the Richmond Jazz Band will again play, as will the Ginter Park again play, as will the Ginter Park band. These garden parties are given hand. These garden parties are given for the purpose of raising funds to pay the expenses of delegates to the Blue Ridge conference in July. Baby Welfare Ball.

Haby Welfare Ball.

In order to swell the fund for the work of the child welfare stations (principally to buy milk for poor bubies) a "Babies" Ball" will be held at the Grays' Armory to-night. Father Byrd will be sponsor for the ball for which elaborate preparations have been made by the City Health Department. The ball is in the nature of a mu-nicipal activity since the welfare stanicipal activity since the welfare sta-tions are this year operated through the Health Department of the city. Last year, it will be remembered, this work was carried on by the Federation of Mothers' Clubs. Chief Health Officer Flannagan is Lawn Fete.

An attractive program was given at a patriotic lawn fete last night at the home of Mrs. T. Eliwood Tragie, 1600 First Avenue, Highland Park, under the auspices of the Highland Park branch of the Red Cross. Alvin M. Smith made a patriotic address, and refreshments were served by young women in the uniform of the Red Cross. The feature of the entertainment, however, was the dancing of Miss Estelle Owens Dennis, who gave an interpretive dance of much beauty, entitled "On to Victory." Her sister, Miss Ann Lydia Dennis, recited and also danced with her sister, Mrs. Butler being the with her sister, Mrs. Butler being the accompanist.
